SOLUTION AT A GLANCE

Competency-Based Approach

Participants are evaluated on four competencies designed for effective facilitation based on adult learning principles.

Personalized and Actionable Feedback

A highly experienced DDI Master Trainer provides individualized feedback during and at completion so participants can take immediate action to improve their skills.

Variety of Techniques

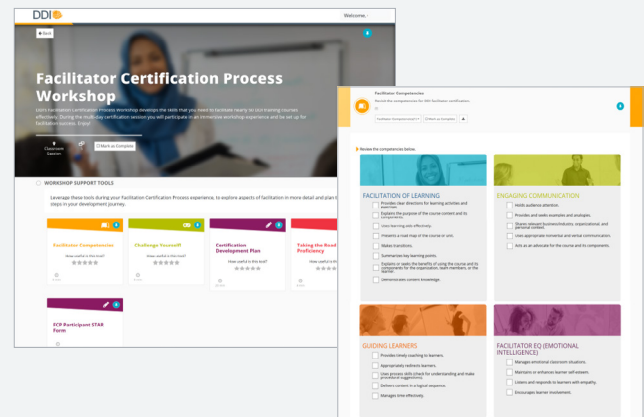

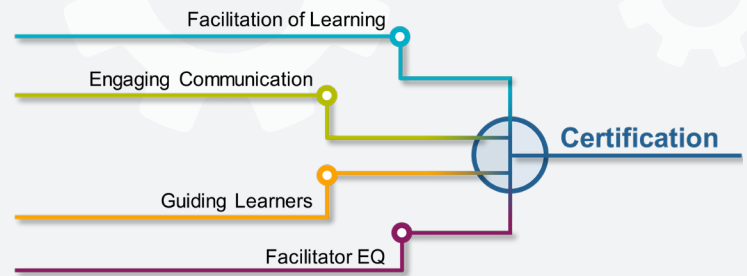

The workshop gives facilitators the opportunity to deliver content, facilitate skill practice exercises, handle challenging classroom situations, and more.

Experience with DDI Content

Provides hands-on prep so your trainers can facilitate DDI courses as soon as they're certified.

Valuable Insights and Network

Participants have a healthy exchange with peers and their Master Trainer during the certification and continue to network beyond the workshop.

HOW IT WORKS

Workshop Prep

Participants complete a self-assessment to gain insights and guide their learning. They also complete DDI's web-based foundational course on essential leadership skills.

Day 1

Participants learn to apply the four facilitator competencies and see a positive model facilitated by their Master Trainer. They receive one-to-one coaching on their assignment to facilitate the next day.

Day 2

Participants facilitate a 30- to 40-minute unit of an assigned leadership course. They receive personalized feedback from their Master Trainer, structured around the four competencies learned on day one. Common classroom challenges are also discussed.

Day 3

Participants facilitate a second time, giving them the opportunity to incorporate feedback from the previous day. The Master Trainer will again offer personalized feedback and evaluate proficiency in the competencies needed for certification. Measuring results and post-workshop resources are discussed.
